PISCES CYCLE

HPR BIZ ALCHEMY LAB

FEBRUARY 20, 2023 - MARCH 20, 2023

CREATED BY

Sheri Moise

Welcome ♡

The final cycle of the astrological year has arrived. With a focus on integration there is also an energy of trust and surrender.

As we discussed in our last workshop we have some big energy shifts that occur at the beginning and end of this cycle. So a lot of completion energy is in the air.

Take time to take care of your inner world as you get ready for the next season. This will support you in discerning what you are meant to focus on next and what is meant to be left behind.

To those of you who have been here with me from the beginning of the Lab thank you. We began in Pisces cycle 2022 and have completed a journey through all 12 signs.

Being a part of your journey is something that I am eternally grateful for. Thank you for exploring with me. I look forward to all that is to come.

Much love,

Sheri

OVERVIEW

We come to the culmination of the astrological year with Pisces season. This is where we have a chance to see the full journey we have been on open up to something bigger.

Spirit Daughter shares that "This vibration holds space for us to integrate and process everything we have learned from the previous eleven Sun seasons. ...this time is an opportunity to slow down, reflect on our journey, and appreciate the evolving nature of our energy. Pisces encourages us to simply be and observe who we are today and the process that brought us here."

Sara Vrba calls this the season of discernment. An invitation to consider what dreams are coming from our hearts versus something we believe we are supposed to be doing.

It's time to sift through all determine what we want to take with us into the next cycle.

We are now being asked to put our dreams to the test, according to astrologer Stephanie Campos. "Honing our discipline and defining a long-term plan for what our heart truly seeks are productive uses of this transit," she says.

Before we start anew next month with Aries season, take this time to gather your wants, needs, and plans of action — although Pisces season is a time to dream, it is also a time to ready yourself to turn those dreams into realities.

So this is time to tune in. To have those deeper conversations with yourself. To consider where you have grown, what you have outgrown, and what you desire to step into or leave behind.

From a marketing perspective this cycle Vanessa Corazon shares that:

From a business perspective, this is an ideal time to promote, launch and begin offers that are more spiritual or healing in nature, both you and your community will be ready for it.

Remember that as you promote spiritual or healing offers to consider that we are still in the Taurus North Node energy. Focus on the desire of your potential soul client. Infuse these Piscean themes. And as always come from your heart and share what lights you up.

Leading with your heart in business isn't a mistake... It's a necessity.

PISCES ENERGY & THEME

PISCES ENERGY

Pisces season is mental energy - meant to inspire us

We can describe the energy of this Pisces cycle as:

- Intuitive - be the observer rather than the doer so your intuition becomes more accessible
- Discerning - what is and is not serving you and your business
- Integration - all that you have journeyed through during the last 11 cycles

Under Aquarius the focus was on the intangible - time, energy, and authenticity in Pisces seasion we are wrapping up loose ends and create space for the new.

Where are looking inward and exploring vulnerably.

Opening up to something bigger.

It's a transformative cycle when we lead the Heartmind and trust our inner wisdom.

CYCLE THEME

Integration

Aquarius season gave us another perspective. Now it is time to integrate all that we have journeyed through of the 11 previous sun signs.

This is the cycle of integration. To address beliefs, doubts, and fears. To sift through and determine what "seeds" we wish to take forward. Let your intuition be your guide.

From a marketing perspective folks will be looking for products and services that have a more Piscean flare. There will be an inclination to open our hearts and talk about things that we believe are holding us back, and share those deeper insecurities. Sharing your alternative modalities and approaches at this time (with the NN in Taurus sensibility) is something folks will be open to as they consider deeper exploration.

PERSONAL PLANET CYCLE GUIDANCE

Mars ♂ Mercury ☿ Venus ♀

What is in store for you and your clients/potential soul clients?

The personal planets can give us a roadmap to guide us!

As Jennifer Racioppi says:

"Mars enables us to take action, to forge a new path in spite of the many obstacles we inevitably face.

Without Mars, our desires (Venus) and mindset shifts (Mercury) would prove fruitless."

MARS IN GEMINI + MERCURY IN AQUARIUS + VENUS IN ARIES

Click here to listen to the cycle guidance

Venus in Aries desires are strong and expressed spontaneously, enthusiastically, and directly.

While Mercury completing its journey in Aquarius for the first half of the cycle our hunger for knowledge and outside of the box thinking continues.

Mars direct in Gemini. That broader perspective supports us in taking action on the things that are meant to move forward.

So overall this cycle energetically:

We are feeling bold and a little impatient, desires are strong and expressed spontaneously, enthusiastically, and directly (Venus in Aries) we will hungry for knowledge and open to new original ideas, thinking outside of the box (Mercury in Aquarius) we will have the ability to see things from a broader perspective and will have the energy to take action on those new ideas (Mars in Gemini).

Remember all this takes place under the Pisces sun where we are completing and integrating and doing things from the "inside out".

Mercury moves into Pisces on 3/2 the energy we will be especially attuned to the world of emotion, which colors both our thoughts and our communication style.

PERSONAL PLANET CYCLE GUIDANCE

MERCURY

Mercury in Aquarius (though 3/2) then in Pisces until 3/17

When Mercury is in Aquarius, we will hungry for knowledge and open to new original ideas,. Thinking outside of the box and even noticing that our communication and thought patterns are more spontaneous, but still reasonable, objective, and can have a more progressive bend. This is a time when inventive thinking is at a peak.

Be open to the ways ideas come to you during this time since it can be spontaneous . During this cycle, we take more interest in thinking that's daring or original. As we envision a better future, we can come up with truly interesting ideas by letting our inner genius be the guide.

When Mercury moves into Pisces during the second half of the cycle we will be especially attuned to the world of emotion, which colors both our thoughts and our communication style. Working from the Heartmind and then the head so that we can connect in first and communicate what will really nourish and support us.

MARS

Mars direct In Gemini 1/12/23 - 3/25/23

Mars is finally direct we will feel a lift in our motivation. But it is still in Gemini so reel in those ideas and thoughts to be sure you aren't going off on tangents.

Pam Younghans shares: During these many weeks, we have been learning a lot about how we use our vital energies, perhaps experiencing an increase in irritations, frustrations, and even anger when things haven't gone exactly according to plan (Gemini). We may also have found ourselves exceptionally impatient when agendas, communications, or travels have been delayed or interrupted.

The higher purpose of these uncomfortable moments is to help us become more aware of when our own energies are not aligned in some way, when we are proceeding from a place of ego "need" rather than an intuitive knowing of best timing.... Over the coming days and weeks if we have done the personal growth work required, we should have more success in moving forward with our desires and intentions, since we will be partnering with the subtle flow of energies rather than trying to force our actions.

So time to tune into your intuitive guidance as you consider your next steps. Reeling in your thinking brain and following your intuitive mind will be the key to ensure those actions are aligned.

PERSONAL PLANET CYCLE GUIDANCE

VENUS

Themes for Venus in Aries 2/19/23 - 3/18/23

According to Astro.com with Venus in Aries - We are bold, fresh, and a little impatient when it comes to matters of the heart. We don't look back with Aries energy. We are not interested in saying sorry or dwelling on the past. It's a brand new day! It's time to make things work right now. Aries is known for a love of the chase and the conquest, but Aries love can be longstanding as long as it remains relatively fresh. Aries is blunt–there's no sugar-coating with Aries. This can sting, but rarely is Aries energy mean or petty. Saying it like it is is important to Aries. Desires are strong and expressed spontaneously, enthusiastically, and directly.

On the business side of things Vanessa Corazon says: Utilizing this period to go for what you want, take big action on what you're passionate about, and begin a passion project can be a fantastic use of this energy. Offers don't need to be as well thought out now so long as they have your interest and excitement, others will feel it from you.

HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE CYCLE

TRANSIT HIGHLIGHTS

All planets direct by January 22nd - April 21st when Mercury goes Retrograde

This will give support to things "moving forward". But the key is to pace yourself and not try to push things forward. Integrate what you have learned during these review periods so that you can take inspired and aligned action going forward.

Jupiter in Aries – December 20, 2022 – May 16, 2023

Back again in independent Aries, we get a major boost of energy from the planet of luck. As we collectively re-energize, expect life to really pick up the pace as Aries ignites the world with bold ideas and inspiration to fearlessly go forth into the unknown.

Jupiter in Aries is led by instinct. Jupiter in Aries 'just knows' what to do next. It just feels it in its gut. Nothing complicated. It just knows. Jupiter in Aries comes with incredible opportunities for growth and self actualization. If you're brave, trust your intuition, and you go.for.it., Jupiter in Aries may be that transit you look back on and say "This is when I became the real me".

How do we make the best use of the Jupiter in Aries transit?

With Jupiter in Aries, you firstly want to become aware of the opportunities that knock on your door and say YES to those that feel right. You may want to pay special attention to opportunities connected to friends, communities and groups of people (Aquarius).

HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE CYCLE

TRANSIT HIGHLIGHTS

Saturn in Pisces - March 7th for a 2.5 year stay

Saturn wants you to take responsibility for all of your energy and to also ensure that you're aware of where your energy is going out and perhaps not coming back in. This is where Pisces can be so self sacrificing and giving a compassionate kind, but to its own detriment, rose tinted glasses or Pisces, even giving somebody the benefit of the doubt or a second chance and you go into that good guy, good girl mode, where you're like, Well, maybe it'll be different or maybe there will be something here that changes.

Remember Saturn doesn't like the word potential. Saturn cannot spell that word that word does not exist because Saturn is about right here right now. What is what is in front of you? What is the reality what is being displayed? Or chosen or set? That is where Saturn's consciousness resides. So we're going to have reality checks about our own unconscious illusions, what we have thought was possible or what we thought was potential.

Vanessa Corazon shares that "From a business perspective, Saturn shows us what needs to be built for the world, and what our community and clients will be dedicating time, energy, and finances to (even if reluctantly, or to all-out avoid)."

Pluto: The Crossover Years. First shift from Capricorn into Aquarius - March 23- May 1st

Pluto carves out generations and what the structure and transformation of those generations will focus on. Between now and the next 20 years we will see significant changes in our world, from business to agriculture, to government, technology, and belief systems. Pluto in a chart shows our power, often hidden, and in some cases misdirected. It also shows our fears and the challenges we may face in gaining our true power.

HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE CYCLE

TRANSIT HIGHLIGHTS

Pluto: The Crossover Years. First shift from Capricorn into Aquarius - March 23- May 1st

Pluto represents themes surrounding destruction, death, and rebirth, while Aquarius represents revolution, rebellion, and reshaping humanity. "Pluto's role is to keep the engine of the universe going, by eliminating what can no longer sustain life. If something is rotten, Pluto will eliminate it, to leave space for healthy growth," astrologer Naajmi W. shares on Twitter.

The combination of these energies together sets the stage for a complete overhaul of how each individual views their place in the world, as well as how the current systems prevent progress — and, therefore, must be left behind.

Pluto in Aquarius will spend its time shaking up all preconceived notions and beliefs around society, technology, social media, and more, and you can expect things to become even tenser when these transits ignite the flames of change and begin the decentralization of existing power structures.

IN THE WORKS

UPCOMING PERSONAL PLANET ENERGIES

Late March - Early April:

We are seeking security and value that which lasts. Our appetite for pleasure is strong. (Venus in Taurus) we are less concerned with objective viewpoints and explanations, and more concerned with reaching a decision... quickly! (Mercury in Aries) our goals and plans are subject to mood swings and much of what we do depends on our mood of the moment. (Mars in Cancer).

Mid April - End April:

Curiosity motivates us on romantic and social levels. "Variety is the spice of life" is the attitude now. We are sociable, communicative, and playful. (Venus in Gemini) our thinking is down to earth, solid, and grounded. Common sense reigns and we communicate more deliberately (Mercury in Taurus) our goals and plans are subject to mood swings and much of what we do depends on our mood of the moment. We may avoid the direct approach of going after what we want. (Mars in Cancer).

NOTE:
The balance of the personal planet energies will be included in the upcoming Spring Equinox Cosmos Planning Session Guidebook.
